2024 AWARD RECIPIENT – Timothy "Stable Master" Norris, Indianapolis Colts

Tim Norris has lived the definition of this award throughout the year. He was eager to meet fans coming in from out of town for their games and host them as a great ambassador to his city. Tim has appreciation for both Friendship and Hospitality by arranging an annual tailgating events around the NFL Combine. Regardless of the weather Tim is there: rain, shine or single degree temperatures to welcome fans from out of town.

Tim is always looking for a reason to gather a group of friends around him, whether it be Colts related, or for fans interested in coming to Indianapolis for the 500.

In addition to all of this, Tim has also taken the moniker of Santa for the displaced fans known as the Misfit Fans, and awards fans meeting the criteria with a misfit puppet when they come to his tailgate in Indy.

Tim is a member of the PFUFA Class of 2019. Tim exemplifies all aspects of the Tommy "Bellringer" Nola Friendship Award, and the PFUFA is proud to announce him as the 2024 recipient. Visit www.pfufa.org (under Main Menu) for a summary of annual awards.
